

Sammy

Says Goodbye

Date: Sunday May 18, 2008

Time: 4:44 am

Our Sammy Shannon left us early this morning to go with the Angels of the Light. He went peacefully in his sleep as we had hoped and is now in the blue mailbox inscribed with his name and the words, "Pure, True Love Ever Rests Here & in Our Hearts". Vic made him a beautiful head stone for the grave we prepared for him in our back yard. While we were thankful to have the last 4 days to prepare for the inevitable, it was no less painful. We will always treasure our loving memories of Sammy.

He literally touched the hearts of many with his love & extended paw.
